Julio Bove

Producer / Writer / Director

Julio Bove graduated with honors from the prestigious University of Southern California Film School of Cinema-Television and the USC Peter Stark Master's Producing Program.

While at USC, Julio wrote, directed, and produced several student films, theater and TV projects: Return to Sender, High Tuber, The Tender Trap and All About Eve.

Julio worked for and was mentored by well-known producers at Warner Brothers. He was later chose during his Master's Program for the Paramount Pictures Executive Internship Program, which exposed him to most high rank meetings and the rigorous demands under which studio executives work.

In May 2000, Julio formed his own independent Film, TV, and Theatre Production company, Bosco Entertainment, in Los Angeles. He writes and produces for Television and Film.

At Bosco Entertainment, he strives for quality material and works with new as well as established talent in the USA, Italy, Spain, Canada, United Kingdom, Ireland, and Argentina. His company now has several projects in different stages of production, development, attachments and financing, among them:

"Unrest" Writer/Dir/Prod: Jason Todd Ipson. Prod: Julio Bove. 2006. In co-production with Asgaard Entertainment. Horror/Medical thriller. Opened November 17, 2006 – Lionsgate – 500 theatres, 35 top North American markets. On DVD, March 2007. On Sci-Fi Channel, November 2007.
